

Let's HEAR just some of the the Good News Happening around HERE...

March 2021

Lenox School:

A group of Lenox School 5th graders were involved in two service projects through their Girls Scout Troop. The girls collected clothing donations for Jeans for Teens. The girls also made sandwiches for a homeless shelter located in Newark, NJ. The projects helped the girls, Samara Bashe, Claire Freeman, Evelyn Lavigne, Julianna McCarthy and Hailey Cerullo (Lincoln) earn their Bronze Award.

The Lenox 3rd graders also joined in to assist the Bronze Award Project by collecting 100 items to donate in recognition of the 100th day of school. Students in Mrs. Kachur's, Ms. Hennessey's, Mrs. Davis's and Mrs. Hedenhag's classes participated.

Lincoln School:

Lincoln School added to its staff resource library this past month. Many of the additional resources were focused on the topics of diversity and inclusivity

The Lincoln School PTA hosted a Virtual Family Trivia Night on March 13. Fourteen teams of students, parents and Lincoln staff members participated for prizes and a night of family fun.

Lakeside School

Seventh grader Leah Ciabottoni finished in the top 5 of a recent Passaic County Gifted and Talented Competition. The project required students to design and market a product for use on the moon.

Lakeside is developing a displayboard for students and staff titled, "Behind the Mask". Participants submit a picture that is added to the board and a few personal fun facts. The activity is being coordinated by the Lakeside Counseling Department's Mrs. Russo and Mrs. Shea.

Congratulations to sixth grader Jocelyn Brock was selected as a member of the Morris Area Honor Choir.

Pompton Lakes High School

The high school's Broadcast Journalism class conducted a virtual interview with Sean Evans, a widely recognized journalist, interviewer and game show host. Sean's guests have includes Shaquile O'Neal, Gordon Ramsey and Billie Eilish. This event was coordinate by English teacher Mr. Robert Edgar and Mr. Bobby Texel.

PLHS alumna Jacqueline Dubrovich '12 made the United States Olympic Women's Fencing (Foil) Team and will be competing in Tokyo this summer.

Congratulations to Girls Basketball Coach, Mrs. Britney Allison for being selected as the Colonial Division's Girls Basketball Coach of the Year.

Congratulations to Mr. Paul Smith for being selected as the Passaic County Girls Fencing Coach of the Year.

Congratulations to Athletic Trainer Ms. Jill Snyder who has been recognized by the NJSIAA and Rothman Orthopadeics during National Athletic Trainer Month.

Special Services

Mrs. Lauren Aiello, Supervisor of Special Services, has been selected as Montclair State University's Outstanding Potential in Educational Leadership Award recipient.

District News:

The district is launching a virtual 8-Week long Gifted Thinkers STEAM Camp beginning on April 12. Gifted thinkers in grades 2-5 will discover, explore and collaborate together to learn about computer coding, engineering & design, and sustainability.

